

Dinosaur Hunter:

Discover the secrets of those prehistoric beasts called dinosaurs. Find out what they looked like and what they ate.

AISD Benchmark Targets

Science:

4. Observe and record the functions of animals' parts (2nd)
6. Identify the external characteristics of different kinds of plants and animals that allow their needs to be met. (2nd)
7. Compare and give examples of the ways living organisms depend on each other and on their environments. (2nd)
8. Classify and sequence organisms, objects, and events based on properties and patterns. (3rd)
13. Collect information using tools including rulers, meter sticks, measuring cups, clocks, hand lenses, computers, thermometers, and balances; measure and compare organisms and objects and parts of organisms and objects, using standard and non- standard units. (5th)
14. Classify and sequence organisms, objects, and events based on properties and patterns. (5th)
15. Ask questions about organisms, objects, and events. (6th)
19. Construct reasonable explanations and draw conclusions using information and prior knowledge. (6th)
20. Communicate explanations about investigations. (6th)

Vocabulary

Paleontologist	Fossils	Trace Fossils	Carnivore	Herbivore
Extinct	Sedimentary Rock	Skeleton	Theory	Defenses
Geologist	Mesozoic Era	Prehistoric	Volcanoes	Predator
Centimeter	Meters	Prey	Classify	Energy
Alike	Different			